B'rit Hachanah B'nei Mitzvah

COVENANT for Beginning the Journey Towards B'nei Mitzvah

Student:

I pledge to exert my best effort in all preparations for becoming bar/bat mitzvah. I commit to "stretching my limits" to see what I can achieve. I will continue my formal and informal Jewish education as I enter into Jewish adulthood.

Parents:

I pledge to be an active participant in my child's journey to Jewish adulthood by supporting, participating in and encouraging their growth and learning. I commit to making home observance and synagogue involvement a priority during this time of preparation. I will encourage my child's continuing formal and informal Jewish education at Temple Isaiah beyond the time of b'nei mitzvah.

Temple Isaiah:

We pledge to engage in a process of preparation for b'nei mitzvah that recognizes the individuality of every student and to respond appropriately. We commit to continually developing our formal and informal Jewish educational offerings with excellence and relevance as our goals. We will maintain open communication with all families through the process of b'nei mitzvah and after towards the goal of full participation in ongoing Jewish education.
